Message from the President & CEO

Dear Member,

Fraud is on the rise - it's crucial to stay vigilant and protect your personal information from potential scams. Scammers are becoming increasingly sophisticated, making it important to always remain alert. By being proactive and cautious, you can safeguard yourself against potential fraud. Remember, reputable organizations like Members Plus, prioritize your security and will never ask for sensitive information via unsolicited communication.

Security Reminder: Members Plus will never contact you ask for your full account number, Online Banking details (password, username, or one-time pin), social security number, debit or credit card number, PIN, or CVV code via phone, text, or email.

If you receive suspicious calls or messages, trust your instincts, and take immediate action to protect yourself. Avoid sharing any personal details, disconnect the call, and do not call back. Consider blocking the number to prevent further contact. Your vigilance is key in maintaining the security of your financial information.

Should you encounter any fraudulent activity or feel uneasy about a particular interaction, do not hesitate to reach out to us at 781-905-1500. Reporting such incidents allows us to investigate and take necessary steps to protect you and other members.

Your commitment to security plays a vital role in preserving your financial well-being. Stay informed and stay safe! Please check out our Fraud Resources Page for more information.

Your security is our top priority, and we are working hard to protect our members every day.

Sincerely,

John J. Murphy

President & CEO
